

the difference was, she was going like the wind, but he said at first glance without thinking he said to himself here comes Louise.

He is going out to George Hedgcock's tonight and wants us to be ready.

Mr. Burns came and got The Radio Monday and promised to bring it back Wednesday and as it did not come Helen says she is going in and ask him if he made a mistake and put it in the wrong house but I imagine she will have heart-failure before she reaches the door.

When we came away it was rather sudden and out of the ordinary way of leaving. I missed you a lot the next day.

Helen says they are talking at school of their vacation beginning Wednesday before yours
